Pastor's Corner.....

"Jesus loves the little children. All the children of the world..." How true the song that many of us learned when we were just little tikes. He truly does love the little children and big children. As I look around, I cannot help but ask, "Where are the children?" Where have they gone? Why are they not in church? That is a question I want to take a good look at this morning, and from God's Word help to answer. I thank God for our children, but we are losing them at a very fast rate. Something needs to be done, and the time is now!

We would like to welcome Mike Upright from Penrose, NC who has come to minister to us through music for tonight's service at 6:00.
