

December 28, 2008

Pastor's Corner..... I don't know what is more mind boggling - that another year is over or a new one is about to begin. I guess we could sit and think about the past year for ever, but at some time we need to get started on the new. I find that no matter what the year's events hold, one thing remains constant. If we abide in Christ and stay as close to Him as we can, the year will be a success. May we enter the New Year purposed and determined to walk close to our Savior in the good and in the bad. We don't know what tomorrow holds, but we do know who holds our tomorrows. Tonight we will have a time set aside for testimonies. It will be a chance to brag on the Lord for His goodness in 2008. May God bless you as we worship Him today.

Again this year Alanna and I want to thank all of you for the wonderful cards and gifts we received this Christmas season. We love you and are looking forward to serving the Lord together in 2009. Let's work extra hard together this year for the Lord and make 2009 the greatest year ever for the glory of God.

The Giving Tree

Today we have another opportunity to give to the Lord and His work. The Giving Tree located in the front of the sanctuary has a wrapped box under it for your offering. You can place your offering in the box anytime throughout the day. One half of the offering will go toward our Awana program while the other half will be used to restock the food pantry for those in our community who have need throughout the year. When you place your offering in the box, pick up a candy cane as a reminder to pray for our Awana program and those in need. God bless you as you give to Him and to those in need.
