Pastor's Corner.....

Vacations are like seasons of refreshing to an extent, but it is also true that there is no place like home. I am glad to be back with you all today. God is good and allows us from time to time to get away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life and take a breath. Even Jesus needed to go up to the mountain to be alone with God from time to time. I find as the days go by there is nothing I would rather do in life than serve my Lord. God is so good. This morning I want to share something from my heart. My message is entitled "What About the Fish?" I pray that it will be an encouragement to you to do as the disciples did and forsake all to follow Christ. It is also our great privilege to have with us this evening missionary Johnny Davis and his family. Bro. Johnny will be telling us about his field and sharing the Word of God. May God richly bless you as you worship Him today.

At a time when the majority of our country's leaders are turning farther and farther from the Truth of God's Word, Consider these words by John Adams, our second president, who also served as chairman of the American Bible Society.

In an address to military leaders he said,

'We have no government armed with the power capable of contending with human passions, unbridled by morality and true religion. Our constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other.'
