Pastor's Corner.....

Do you remember eating at Grandma's house when you were a kid? You'd walk in the door and were immediately hit with the aroma of something delicious in the oven. You knew whatever she had in there was not something you were going to just scarf down and be on your way. You were going to savor every minute of the experience. The smell, taste, and love that went into it were beyond compare. Do you realize the same is true about the Lord? We too often treat Him like we would any old dinner or experience. No big deal. He's here, and He's good. We don't take the time to truly savor who He really is. This morning I want to preach a message entitled "Savoring the Savior". My prayer is that we will all develop a greater appreciation for our Lord. Tonight I will be preaching a sermon on "What does it mean to be an independent church?"
